Rain-Slicked Highways Cause Auto Accidents; Nine Persons Injured

Christmas Eve traffic accidents left at least 16 smashed automobiles in six accidents, nine persons injured—one seriously—and one dead, California Highway Patrol officers reported Tuesday morning.

Throughout the county, rain-slicked pavements resulted in numerous property damage accidents, police said.

John H. Davenport, 19, of 567 Easton Dr., San Bruno, was dead on arrival at South San Francisco Hospital after a two-car accident on Bayshore Hwy. at Tunnel Hill, caused by a skidding vehicle.

Edward C. Wilson, 41, Box 14, El Granada, driver of a pick-up truck which skidded out of control, was in serious condition at South San Francisco Hospital where he suffered a fractured skull.

Hospital attendants said Wilson, who is a Southern Pacific switchman, was badly lacerated by glass which tore off the side of his scalp from his eye to the rear of his head.

Billy Everett, 20, of 878 Easton Dr., San Bruno, driver of the automobile in which Davenport was riding, suffered lacerations of the hand, shoulder and possible rib fractures. He also suffered friction burns, they said.

Mrs. Ethyl Wilson, passenger in the truck, suffered scalp lacerations and shock, and Margaret Higgins, 47, of Rt. 1, Box 408, El Granada, also a passenger, suffered facial lacerations.

Highway patrolmen who investigated the accident said Wilson's northbound truck skidded, and spun around into the opposite lane of traffic where it was hit from the rear by Everett's southbound car.

Donald L. Ross, Jr., 47, of 656 Tennyson Ave., Palo Alto, and his wife, Julia, 34, were booked on drunk charges by patrolmen after the couple was taken to Palo Alto Hospital for treatment of injuries received in a south-county Bayshore Hwy. accident.

Ross, a cab driver, drove head-on into a car driven by Julia I. Hemphill, 34, 2136 Cooley Ave., Palo Alto, patrolmen said.

The accident occurred near Pulgas St. at 12:15 a.m. Tuesday.

Two men suffered minor injuries Monday at 5:45 p.m. when cars driven by Robert A. Bridges, 27, of St. Luke's Hospital, San Francisco, and the Rev. Luther J. Durkop, 28, of 1768 Sonoma Ave., Berkeley, sideswiped on Bayshore Hwy. south of Palmar Ave., East Palo Alto.

The reverend and his passenger, the Rev. Marvin Kampee, 26, Avalon Motel, San Mateo, were injured, patrolmen said.

Mabel Swearington, 56, of 35 Brighton Ave., San Francisco, suffered minor injuries when a car driven by Joseph A. Sesnon, 33, of 774 Schiefeue St., San Jose, was knocked into a parked car by an automobile driven by Holvar M. Hemness, 51, of 600 College Ave., Palo Alto, according to officers.

The three-car collision occurred on Bayshore Hwy. south of University Ave. at 6:15 p.m.

Wiliam H. Gardner, 34, of 556 Irven Court, Palo Alto, was driver of the parked car.

No one was injured when cars driven by Pierre J. Larraux, 43, of 309 Bayshore Hwy., South San Francisco and 2192 Cooley Ave., Palo Alto; and Barbara H. Rolfe, 20, of 297 Selby Ln., Atherton, hit headon on Bayshore Hwy. near 19th Ave., San Mateo, officers said.

A third car, driven by Fred Balocchi, 52, of 2465 Chestnut St., San Francisco, skidded into the rear of Larraux' car during a heavy rainstorm.

Capt. E. F. Cassell In Auto Accident

California Highway Patrol Capt. Elbert F. Cassell didn't use a pencil and an accident report at the scene of a three-car collision on El Camino Real near Wellesley Ave. Monday afternoon.

Instead, he explained to Redwood City Police Officers Robert West and Dana R. Morgan how his black and white patrol car was involved in the crash.

Cassell, Ainer F. Borman, 30, of Ft. Ord, and Joseph J. Morton, 31, 331 Winchester St., Daly City, attributed the crash to slick pavements, heavy traffic, and an unidentified car which caused Borman to swerve.

Cassell gave his address as 183 Ruby St., San Carlos, and his age as 43.

Assessed Valuation Average Shows Drop

Assessed value of taxable property in San Mateo County this year averages $786 for each of the 183,000 people estimated to be in the county on Jan. 1, 1946, California Taxpayer's Assn. stated today, making public its study of assessed valuation in California counties. Total assessed value of property in the county for 1945-46 is $143,870,838.

Taxable property in the county averaged $814 for 173,000 people for 1944-45, when assessed valuation reached $140,759,075.

For 1940-41, the per capita assessed valuation of the county was $1023 for 117,100 people and a total valuation of $119,834,211.

Mrs. McMonigle Visits Husband

Thomas Henry McMonigle, held in Santa Cruz for the kidnap-slaying of Thora Chamberlain, Monday afternoon was visited by his wife, Ena.

The two, who had not seen each other for more than a month, embraced and discussed Christmas plans for their child, Barbara Jean, born Oct. 30.

Mrs. McMonigle, driven to Santa Cruz from her home in San Mateo, left the jail building with "an open mind" about the case, which she said was "confusing."

McMonigle, 35-year-old San Mateo bus driver, is charged with killing the Chamberlain girl shortly after driving her from San Jose Nov. 2.

The FBI, which took him into custody, announced he had confessed to the crime.

He has denied the confession to news reporters.

Arizona's eight national forests have a total area of more than 11,000,000 acres.

Peninsula Police Question 2 Youths, Girl on Burglary

San Carlos and other Peninsula police Tuesday questioned two youths and a 14-year-old girl taken into custody early Sunday when two San Carlos policemen interrupted a burglary at Harrington's, 1748 El Camino Real.

Officers Frank Lucero and Don Lowe, making a routine check at the often-burglarized establishment, found an open rear window, and upon investigation, heard footsteps inside.

Summoning aid from Redwood City and Belmont police, Lucero and Lowe stood by until the establishment was surrounded, and Lucero entered the building where he found Austin Hunley, 19, Mountain View laborer, huddled in a corner.

Hunley had a crobwar in his hand.

A block away, police investigated a parked car where they took Cecil Cook, 21, Mountain View truck driver, and the girl into custody.

The trio told police they had watched the establishment for several days before attempting to burglarize it for whisky and money.

The Santa Clara County sheriff's office and local police want the two youths for questioning, San Carlos police declared.

Ex-Officer Jailed On Hit-Run Charge

John N. Breeden, 41, recently released navy officer, was charged with misdemeanor hit-run driving Monday, California Highway Patrol officers announced.

Breeden, who resides on Eleanor Dr. in Woodside Heights, was traced to his home last night after Edward A. Errington, 23, of 1218 24th Ave., San Francisco, reported the accident to patrol men.

Errington took the New York license number of a convertible coupe after his parked car had been struck on El Camino Real near Edgewood Rd., the CHP reported.

Woodside patrolmen, finding a coupe disabled on Eleanor Dr., summoned patrol officers who checked the license plates and ordered impounding of the car.

Breeden's wife, noticing the car was being moved, queried officers who in turn questioned Breeden, officers said.

News of Commuters

BY JOE CABOOSE

With all his amazing progress in exploring the atom, there are still two things man hasn't been able to do much about. Weather and women. Both have been extremely difficult in this hectic fortnight before Christmas. Despite the paucity in the stores of things nobody needs, our women have gone all out for the merry old exchange. We've spent hours paddling around in the rain looking for the little gadgets that weren't there. However, they look very neat when they're wrapped. And under the tree you can't tell them from gifts.

★ ★ ★

It just goes to show that Christmas shopping is here to stay, and that women won't be discouraged either by a shortage of merchandise or the narrowness of selection. And it matters not if she buys a rabbit and pays for a horse. As usual, papa foots the bill. And, as usual, he gets a new Christmas tie. Why is it there is never any shortage of men's ties?

★ ★ ★

Recently we wrote our disgust at not being able to buy such a common necessity as cleansing tissue. We painted such a pitiful picture of the Caboose children with running noses, that a former neighbor of ours on Oak St. was moved to share her meagre supply with us. And did! Thanks Mrs. G. I. Woodside. (And what we just said about women doesn't apply to you.)

★ ★ ★

The Commuters held their joint Scouts-Cubs Christmas party last Friday night at McKinley School and it was literally a howling success. Fred Rasmussen's Punch-and-Judy show had the boys convulsing with laughter. Pack 16 turned out 52 cubs, and Troop 160 was represented by 8 or 10 scouts. Both outfits are sponsored by the Commuters Club. Roy Fredlund was m.c., and John Layng played Santa Claus. Bruce Schott, E. H. George, Ray Cereghino and others contributed to make the party a success.

Dropped in on Councilman and Mrs. Chester Armstrong last evening (to share a cup of Yuletide cheer) and there we met some of the finest people in the world—our friends and neighbors in Redwood City. Incidentally, we gleaned a few items for the colyum. Mrs. Brizee was there without Clarence, who is ill. Ray without Mrs. Cereghino, likewise ill. Jackie Welch looking very feminine after discarding her WAC uniform. Phyllis Liebman, prettier than ever, announcing she will sail Dec. 28 to return to Honolulu. Councilman Floyd Granger being "panned" good-naturedly about Redwood City's un-inspiring holiday decorations . . . and Floyd referring all complaints to Ned Butler of the chamber of commerce. The lovely Florence Jaeger Griffen beaming at her handsome lieutenant husband, Bert Griffen, just returned from duty in the South Pacific.

Other old friends with whom we enjoy a cup of tea and cookies at Chester's included Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Marcus, Col. and Mrs. Harry Day, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Britschgi, the Lou Winkenwerders, the Lloyd Liebmans, the Fred Jaegers, the Ted Thompsons, Jack and Clara Welch, and the Curran-Winkleblecks. Preceding us were the Ned Butlers, the Sid. Herkners, the Mayor Hiltons, Mrs. Evelyn Carlson, to mention a few. Lou Winkenwerder assisted the host in pouring. And what a beautiful silver service they poured from! It would have warmed the heart of any burglar.

★ ★ ★

We were not there, but they tell us Guido Simoni played Santa Claus to the gang on the 5:21 Friday, and did a right noble job at that. Nice going Guido!

★ ★ ★

If you notice a big unsightly trunk of a tree in front of the Caboose cabin on Brewster please know it is not a yule log. It is the remains of another curbstone acacia tree, victim of Saturday's storm. It missed by a flash second of falling on a passing woman motorist. Last Spring after the first big acacia toppled over we asked the city to remove the other two because they were diseased. (C. A. Buck, former owner of the place, had them inspected and found them diseased.) The then city manager advised us the trees were okay and the city would not remove them. One of these "okayed" trees blew over Saturday and revealed its roots were 90 per cent rotted. The other tree, still standing, is more dead than alive.

★ ★ ★

Once upon a time a mother was awakened Christmas morning by her 3-year-old daughter singing "Happy Birthday to You." The mother tip-toed downstairs to the living room whence the tiny voice came. She was about to say: "Darling, this is nobody's birthday, it's Christmas!" And then she paused. There kneeling in front of a cardboard crib with her eyes fixed on the Babe of Bethlehem, the little girl was just concluding her song, ". . . happy birthday dear Jesus, happy birthday to you!"

Are not many of us like that mother, forgetting for the moment—in the mad rush and scramble of the holidays—the real significance of Christmas? Are not the world and its leaders too much like that mother, ignoring the fact that the formula for international peace, written by the Prince of Peace Himself, is right before their eyes, within their easy reach . . . if they could be humble enough to accept it. In the spirit of the little girl singing, we wish you all a Merry Christmas.

The first comedy was performed in Athens about 550 B.C. on a movable scaffold.

Dr. Fromm To Reopen Dental Office

Dr. A. J. Fromm, who left his dental practice in Redwood City in May, 1943, to join the navy, will reopen his offices in the Andrew Bldg. Jan. 2, he announced Wednesday. Dr. Fromm started his practice in the Andrew Bldg. in September, 1930.

He became a lieutenant commander in the navy and was senior dental officer at Base Hospital 18 on Guam, which handled casualties from Leyte, Iwo Jima, Okinawa, the hospital ship Comfort, the carrier Franklin, cruiser Indianapolis and the battleship Pennsylvania.

Dr. Fromm did all of the prosthetic work for the hospital and surrounding units.

His first duty was at Mare Island Navy Yard for eight months, after which he was stationed at the Hunters Point Naval Dry Dock for seven months. He was sent to Guam July 29, 1944 to help set up the base hospital, which was commissioned on Nov. 18, 1944 with 2500 beds. The hospital handled 20,000 patients in 10 months.

Dr. Fromm returned on Nov. 17, 1945 and his terminal leave expires Jan. 27.

He is past president of the Redwood City Lions Club and past commodore of the Sequoia Yacht Club.

Woman Dies In P.A. Fire

Fire destroyed the home of an elderly Palo Alto woman Sunday morning, trapping the woman in her second story bathroom where her charred remains were discovered by firemen.

Dead is Miss Helen Willaums, about 70, who until her retirement 12 years ago, was secretary-treasurer of the Pyrene Manufacturing Co., manufacturers of fire extinguishers.

Cause of the blaze which leveled the two-story home at 3850 La Selva Dr., just south of the city limits, was undetermined. Palo Alto Fire Chief Louis Ledford said that Miss Willaums' remains were discovered in what was once the upstairs bathroom, indicating that she had tried to escape from her upstairs bedroom after discovering the stairway had been destroyed.

Miss Willaums had been confined to her bed recently by bronchitis. Firemen responded to two telephone calls received in rapid succession about 6:20 o'clock. State forestry equipment also went to the scene but firemen were only able to save an adjoining garage.

Paintings and other works of art were destroyed in the fire as well as valuables contained in two metal strong boxes. Deputy Coroner Harry E. Ryder opened the boxes this morning and discovered jewelry including diamonds.

One of the boxes was supposed to contain a will by which Miss Willaums deeded her property and possessions to a friend, Mrs. Millie A. Clark. The two women were engaged in the real estate business in San Francisco many years ago. Miss Willaums had lived in Palo Alto 25 years.

Student Prince Opens at Curran

The vogue for good musical entertainment is never ending and so "The Student Prince" should enjoy its limited holiday engagement at the Curran Theater, San Francisco, which opened Monday.

Dressed, directed and staged anew, this favorite operetta, which has proved itself by the test of time to be one of the finest of all light operas, as well as one of the most popular musical productions ever to be presented throughout the world, comes here bearing in its wake new acclaim and new successes.

"The Student Prince" has been eagerly and most enthusiastically welcomed wherever it has played during its present tour. Acted and sung by a splendid group of artists, one of the best casts it has ever had, and with a stunning singing chorus, Sigmund Romberg's musical classic is as joyful and entertaining in the re-telling as in the original version some years back.

The well-loved "Golden Days," "Serenade," "Deep In My Heart, Dear," "Just We Two" and "Student Days," are a few of the great song hits in the marvelous Sigmund Romberg score. Many of these songs are assigned to the male chorus, one of the big features of this production of "The Student Prince."

Featured in the large and excellent cast are Alexander Gray as "Dr. Engel," Laurel Hurley as "Kathie," Detmar Poppen as "Lutz," Toby Durst as "Prince Karl Franz" and Nina Varela as the "Grand Duchess Anastasia."

Skating Vanities To Open Jan. 16

One of the most novel and colorful extravaganzas in the entertainment field, Harold Steinman's "Skating Vanities of 1946," will return to San Francisco's Civic Auditorium on Wednesday evening, Jan. 16, for its second annual engagement here.

The star-studded skating revue, produced at a cost of $250,000 and with a cast of 125 headed by lovely Gloria Nord, will continue nightly in 15 gala performances through Jan. 30.

"Skating Vanities" is a lavish product of Broadway, directed by Fanchon and Marco, and including gorgeous costumes and settings, solo and ensemble dance routines, comedy, acrobatics and many unusual variety acts during its two and one-half hour presentation.

The dazzling revue claims one of the largest chorus lines in show business, with 60 beauteous and talented girls, each an accomplished skater and ballet dancer in her own right. These glamorous chorines, called the "Vanity Fairs," appear in several of the show's eight major production numbers, and participate in smaller units in most of the "Skating Vanities" 30 all-star variety acts.

Among the many innovations to be introduced to Northern California audiences during the show's San Francisco run is a specially-designed series of ramps, down which the skaters descend onto the soundproof masonite arena floor in a thrilling entrance. It is the first time such a novel entrance has ever been attempted.

Although "Skating Vanities" is now in its fourth year the coming engagement will mark the revue's second showing in San Francisco. The 1945 edition proved itself a tremendous success in the bay city, and present indications are that the 1946 presentation will draw record crowds.

Couple Sues Firm In Building Case

Footnote to the housing shortage and its problems was offered in superior court here last week in a suit for injunction filed against a building concern by Harold and Ann Brugger.

The complaint charges the Bruggers paid $1750 down payment to Scoble, Inc., on a lot and house-to-be-built in Lomita Hills, last July. The property, when completed, was to cost $7500, they charge, under provisions of the War Labor Board rule L-41.

The suit asks the injunction to prevent the Scoble Co. from disposing of the property, for a reported $10,000, to other parties, and asks that should the house not be built and given to the Bruggers for the agreed-upon $7500, that $10,000 damages be awarded.

The complaint charges that after the WPB restrictions were lifted, Oct. 15, the defendants failed to complete the house and indicated they would sell the property elsewhere for as much as $10,000.

'Cindy' Has Narrow Escape

"Cindy," pet cocker spaniel of the Herbert E. Freys at 2919 Hillside Dr., Burlingame, was a near-casualty Tuesday when a furnace oil pan ignited in the basement of the family home.

The dog was half-overcome by smoke when Chief Dep. Fire Warden Ernie Werder and others from the county forest service opened the basement door to extinguish the fire.

Firemen revived the family pet, and confined damage to a smoked-up basement.

How to have a happy New Year's eve!

Almost everyone likes hamburgers and wieners—with all the fixings—at any time of day or night. Why not capitalize on this fact and have them either for a New Year's eve watch party, or else invite friends in New Year's afternoon to listen to the football game or just visit. No matter what the time would be, this menu will serve as a guide. Everything can be prepared hours in advance, with the exception of the cooking of the hamburgers and hot dogs. The main thing is to have plenty!

Hamburgers and/or Wieners on Buns
Big Bowl Potato Salad
Bowl of Hard-cooked Eggs in Shells
Potato Chips
Sliced Dry Onions in Vinegar
Green Onions
Dill Pickles — Pickle Relish
Mustard — Chili Sauce
Lots of Coffee

My friend, who specializes in hamburger parties for New Year's day, pats the seasoned meat out to about one-half inch in thickness on sheets of waxed paper. Then she cuts uniform circles with a number 2½ can that has had both ends removed. She then arranges these in layers on a tray with waxed paper between and keeps them in the refrigerator until just before time to cook.

For large quantity cooking, she places the hamburgers on an aluminum tray or a drip pan and cooks two layers at a time in a very hot oven, 500° F., and she drops the wieners in a pot of boiling water that is on the stove. Meanwhile, right in the kitchen — on the drainboard or on the kitchen table — she spreads checked cloths and puts all the fixings. Paper plates, coffee cups and forks are all that will be needed in the way of dishes, except for the serving silver. Each person makes his own sandwich to suit his own taste. Sometimes there are bowls of shining red apples and cheesed popcorn for dessert.
